

Standards

FINDING STANDARDS IN GRIFFIN ONLINE CATALOG:

Currently WSU (Pullman campus) has a complete set of the ASTM Standards in print and subscribes to IEEE Standards electronically, but the library has only limited holdings of standards of other organizations. Print standards are shelved throughout the library by subject.

"Standards" is a Library of Congress Subject Heading which means the term can be used to find all documents assigned that subject heading. From the Griffin search screen, select Subject in the first dropdown and then type "standards" (without quotation marks) in the box and click on search.

If you know you want a standard for a specific topic, try using a Keyword search. You can still use the standards subject heading by typing "s:standards" in the search box. Then add words regarding your specific topic.
